THE TOTAL ESTIMATES

Regarding the Excavation For the Nicaraguan Canal.

DETAILS OF CONSTRUCTION.

Cost of the Ochoa Dam Upon Which Depends the Entire Feasibility of the Route Has Not Been Computed Yet.

New York, Dec. 23.—The preliminary report of the Nicaraguan canal commission, consisting of General Hains, Admiral Walker and Professor Haupt, has been completed, and will be read before the senate committee, either during the Christmas recess of congress or immediately afterward.

This report will give many details of construction in regard to the proposed route, and will give pretty close figures upon the entire cost of the undertaking as far as human ingenuity can foresee.

A summary of these costs have been made out in sections, and without going into details of curves and levels they are as follows:

The eastern harbor and jetties will require about 9,000,000 cubic yards of soft excavation. The jetties themselves require about 400,000 cubic yards of rip-rap stone.

The Greytown section of the canal, that is the section beginning at the harbor and reaching to the east divide, will require 16,000,000 cubic yards of earth and clay excavations. The three locks in this section will cost in the neighborhood of $10,000,000 complete, with 8,000,000 yards excavation.

This section is about 13½ miles in length and runs through the jungle country near the coast. There will be 700 acres of clearing and grubbing also in this section. The incidental expenses will amount to little besides these above enumerated; therefore they are omitted.

The divide section reached from here through the high rocky range of hills to 24 miles further.

There are 7,500,000 cubic yards of rocks in this cut and about 5,000,000 yards of earth and clay. The depth of this cut will be mitigated by the height of the canal, which is here 112 feet above the sea. The actual cutting will be about 200 feet in the deepest part.

From here begins the Ochoa section, which runs through the San Francisco basin and Florida lagoon.

This is low country and the cutting, which will reach to the Ochoa dam, 34½ miles from the Caribbean sea, will only add 10,000,000 yards to the figures, making a trifle over 40,000,000 cubic yards to the dam.

From here a summary of the cut through the San Juan river will aggregate 34,000,000 cubic yards, with about 5,000,000 more for curve widening and 2,000 acres clearing and grubbing.

This will not include any of the dams or embankments but simply the channel cutting in the bed of the San Juan river. This makes 75,000,000 cubic yards of all grades of cutting to Lake Nicaragua.

The cost of the Ochoa dam, upon which rests the entire feasibility of the route, has not been accurately computed, as the undertaking of so colossal a nature is beyond figuring within a unit.

The dam will be over 1,500 feet in length, its foundation 75 feet below the bed of silt in the river bottom, and its rise over 130 feet. As the river will have to be turned from its course during this construction, it will be seen that many details will have to be taken into consideration for an estimate for its cost.

The San Carlos embankment will cost several million dollars, and the estimates are being made. The cuts in the shallow part of the lake will aggregate 10,000,000 yards, making a total of 85,000,000 to the western division of the canal.

The estimates for the western division have not been made yet.

They are under the direction of Admiral Walker's son, V. G. Walker, and they will amount to not less than 30,000,000 cubic yards more, making a total of 115,000,000 cubic yards of all kinds of excavation to the harbor at Brito.

It will be seen that $135,000,000 will be a conservative estimate of the entire cost of the canal, and this almost agrees with that of Major General William Ludlow's report of 1896.

San Francisco, Dec. 23.—Herman Grunbery died at the Pacific home, aged 102 years. Nineteen years ago he bought a coffin, and had a shroud made and selected his pallbearers.

He will be buried in the casket he kept for so long, but he survived all but three of the men chosen to bear his remains to the grave.

MRS. FAYNE MOORE

Denies All the Shady Transactions Ascribed to Her.

New York, Dec. 23.—William A. E. Moore, convicted of working the "Badger" game on Martin Mahon, at the Hotel Greco, was to have been sentenced, but the trial of his alleged wife, Fayne Strahan Moore, accused of complicity in the crime, being still in progress, Recorder Goff announced when court convened that the passage sentence would be deferred.

The cross-examination of Mrs. Fayne Moore was continued. Assistant District Attorney McIntyre sought to elicit admission that Mrs. Moore came from Atlanta with a man named Ryan, said to be a gambler. She introduced Ryan to Moore, and that she arranged a game of billiards between the two men in which Ryan lost $1,000 to Moore, but to all the questions put by Mr. Intyre, answers were given in the negative.

Mrs. Moore refused to give the name of the man with whom she went to Europe. She denied that she had ever fled from the United States to Europe with a confederator from Memphis.

Mrs. Moore also denied various allegations of immorality implied by questions of the cross-examiner. An entry from her diary gave evidence of her intimacy with Ellis, the Cuban, who has been frequently referred to during the trial.

General Howard's Complaint.

Washington, Dec. 23.—The war investigation commission was reduced to two members, Chief of Engineers General John M. Wilson and Colonel Denby. General Wilson has practically transferred his war department office to the commission's quarters, and Colonel Denby officiated as interrogator, with General O. O. Howard, retired, in the witness chair. General Howard told how disappointed he had been in not securing assignment for active service during the war, and how he had done the next best thing for his country by accepting the office of visiting delegate for the army and navy Christian commission, and distributing tracts and other things through the southern camps.

The Pope's Reply.

Rome, Dec. 23.—The pope at the reception of the Christmas greetings of the cardinals and other prelates appeared to be in excellent health. Replying to their congratulations, he referred to the "sinister events of 1898," and said "It was high time the governments of Europe united to stop unheard of outrages and save exterminations." But, the pontiff added, this could not be stopped until the "fear of God, the basis of all morality, is revived in the conscience of the people and becomes the guiding principle of the organization of states."

New Treaty With Peru.

New York, Dec. 23.—Captain J. B. Hickey, military attaché of the United States legation in Peru, arrived here on the Panama liner Alliance. He is on his way to Washington. Speaking of the notification of the abrogation of the commercial treaty between the United States and Peru, which expires by limitation next October, Captain Hickey said that it will be followed by a new treaty, one of the principal features of which will provide for arbitration of claims of citizens of one country against the other, which will do away with the friction attending the McCord and Godfrey claims.

Tariff Negotiations With Germany.

Washington, Dec. 23.—The British newspapers, it is said at the state department, are far ahead of the department itself in getting news of the intentions of the German ambassador to Washington, respecting the initiation of new tariff negotiations. It had been supposed that ultimately the German government would take advantage of the reciprocity clauses of the tariff act to seek to enter into some such arrangement for mutual concessions in tariff charges as was reached between the United States and France.

To Watch For Smugglers.

Victoria, B. C., Dec. 23.—The Dominion customs authorities have begun a war of extermination on the fleet of sloops and schooners, the majority of which are American vessels hailing from Puget sound, which have made considerable money, and, it is alleged, defrauded the customs of considerable by the sale of contraband goods to traders and settlers along British Columbia's northern coast line. To this end they are about to establish a chain of protective stations along the coast.

Another Cut In Sugar.

Chicago, Dec. 23.—The western headquarters of Arbuckle Brothers announced another cut in the price of refined sugar. Quotations of 5.14 cents per pound were made to retail dealers direct, jobbers being ignored. This is about 3-16 of a cent below the American Sugar Refining company's prices.

ARMY'S BEEF SUPPLY.

General Miles Explains Statements to War Investigators.

EFFECT OF THE CHEMICALS.

He Ascribes the Sickness Among the Soldiers Largely to the Artificial Preparations of the Meat Sent to Tropics.

Cincinnati, Dec. 23.—General Miles returned to Washington after being the guest of honor here at the New England banquet.

When asked as to the investigation into the beef ration scandal he is now making, to which he referred in his testimony Wednesday, General Miles said: "My suspicions were aroused several months ago, and I at once instituted an investigation into the matter of sending beef to the army in the West Indies. The item in my testimony of Wednesday relating to 371 tons of refrigerator beef and 198,000 pounds of canned fresh beef, which was unfit for food, is only an item. This quantity was sent to one town in Porto Rico alone. How much more was sent to Porto Rico I do not know."

"How about the beef supply for the army in Cuba?"

"It was just as bad. The conditions there were no better than they were in Porto Rico, as I indicated in my testimony."

"How about rations before the army embarked? Was the supply no better before the transports sailed than after the army was established in Cuba?"

"It was the same at Tampa and the same at Jacksonville."

"Will you give a little more light on what you meant by this assertion in your testimony before the war commission?"

General Miles suggested that the food was sent to his large army under pretense of an experiment.

"I think," continued General Miles, "that that sentence is sufficiently plain."

"Pretense," he said, "is the precise term to be used. It is absurd to pretend that these enormous quantities of beef were sent to an entire army simply as an experiment. To expect that beef can be exposed to the tropical sun for 60 hours without mortifying is out of the question."

"How about the chemicals used in preparing this beef?"

"As I stated in my testimony, I believe that the action of these chemicals was largely responsible for the sickness in the army. I have medical authority for this statement, and I believe it to be true."

"How far along has your investigation into this subject progressed?"

"It began several months ago. I have the testimony of a large number of officers upon this matter, some of which I gave in my testimony before the commission. My inquiry is still in progress."

YALE DIVINITY STUDENT

Arrested by Detectives For Being a Professional Shoplifter.

New Haven, Dec. 23.—James P. Miller, a Yale divinity student and a 3-year graduate, has been arrested for shoplifting. He was seen by the detectives to purloin three books in a bookstore, and by tracking the man they discovered that he was evidently a professional shoplifter.

Five thousand volumes were discovered at his rooms and at his home. The books ranged from editions d'lux to pocket editions. Two dealers have already identified 2,000 volumes. Miller has a cast fitted with pockets, such as professional thieves wear.

Boston, Dec. 23.—The annual report of the American board of foreign missions made public shows the following receipts: Donations, $252,488; legacies, $187,729; donations for school fund, $7,312; donations for Micronesian navy, $2,976; donations for young missionaries' fund, $3,017; donations for debt of Sept. 1, 1897, $25,902; donations for mission work for women, $136,000; income of funds, $6,293; total, $871,717.

Ghani Bey Murdered.

Constantinople, Dec. 23.—Ghani Bey, the sultan's aide de camp, was murdered by Hafuz Pacha, in a quarrel. Ghani Bey became notorious owing to his lawless proceedings in Epirus. He also inspired terror here by extorting money under threats of death. The officials of the foreign embassies have frequently demanded the punishment of Ghani Bey, but were unsuccessful.

Thanks For Contributions.

Washington, Dec. 23.—The following has been received here from Habana by president McKinley: "The city council has resolved, in the name of the people of Habana, to return its warmest thanks to you for the contribution sent in aid of the poor."

A COMMON CUSTOM

To Burn Old Records of the Standard Oil Company.

Cleveland, Dec. 23.—Evidence was secured from additional witnesses to show that books and papers belonging to the Standard Oil company had been destroyed on Nov. 19 and 21.

The first witness examined was George Fields, who was claimed to have sent employees of the company to the general offices after the books that were alleged to have been destroyed. Field testified that he was instructed by telephone to send two men to the general offices. He thought it was on Nov. 19. He sent William Moran and McNierney in the morning, and in the afternoon Gabeline and Schaf went to help them.

The next witness was William Moran. Moran said that he was sent after the boxes of books and papers. He told about burning them.

On cross-examination Moran said that he knew that a lot of books and papers were burned a year ago, but he did not help burn them. Nobody said anything to him about keeping the burning of the books secret. Other witnesses have testified that it was common to burn old records. Another effort was made to subpoena Secretary Squire of the Standard Oil company, and Frank Rockefeller, but neither could be found.

Mr. Kline's Denial.

Cleveland, Dec. 23.—Virgil P. Kline, attorney for the Standard Oil company, has issued a formal statement emphatically denying the published statement that he had received in advance a "tip" of the decision of the Ohio supreme court, and then notified the Standard Oil company. He also says: "The statement given out that the company has destroyed any of its books of accounts for the purpose of evading the order of the court is equally false."

DEFENDANTS DISCHARGED.

It Was No Crime For Mrs. Magowan to Take Her Own Child.

Cleveland, Dec. 23.—Judge Disette, in criminal court, sustained the demurrer made to the indictment determined against ex-Mayor F. E. Magowan, Mrs. Magowan and Mrs. Wynn, Mrs. Magowan's sister, upon the charge of child stealing.

The court ordered all of the defendants in the case discharged, saying that it was not a crime for a mother to steal her own child in the state of Ohio. The Magowans were not in court when the decision was rendered, and are said to still be in Toronto.

Murder and Arson.

Loraine, O., Dec. 23.—John Dalton's restaurant and boardinghouse was burned. There were several boarders in the house, all escaping except John Rigo, a man whose home was in Chicago. His remains were found after the fire had been extinguished, and the condition of the body is such as to lead to the belief of murder and the firing of the building to cover the crime. Three suspects are under arrest.

A Tragic Coincidence.

Toledo, Dec. 23.—Mrs. Mary Mynihan, 55, was struck by an electric car and fatally injured. She was thrown against the curb and had her skull fractured in three places. A strange coincidence is that her husband was struck and killed at the identical spot and by the same car two years ago.

Sixth Ohio Ordered to Move.

Knoxville, Dec. 23.—The Sixth Ohio, Colonel McMakin, received orders to move. The regiment goes from here to Charleston, S. C., where a transport will be taken for Cienfuegos, Cuba. The Sixth expects to leave camp Poland during the night, and will spend Christmas on the road.

Bride-Eldest Burned.

Marion, O., Dec. 23.—Miss May Cloud, 18, died from the effects of burns caused by a gas explosion. She attempted to light a fire when the stove was full of gas. The case is a very pathetic one, as Miss Cloud was to have been married Christmas day.

New Incorporations.

Columbus, O., Dec. 23.—The Lagoona Box company, Springfield, capital stock $10,000; the Cincinnati Gaslight and Coke company, Cincinnati, increase of capital stock $500,000; the Cleveland Mining and Stock Exchange, Cleveland, capital stock $10,000.

Miss Mae May Smiles.

Akron, O., Dec. 23.—The grand jury failed to find any indictment against Miss Mae Boch, a leading society lady of this city, who was arrested upon the affidavit of Charles H. Fuller, a Cleveland furrier. He charged blackmail.

Omaha, Dec. 23.—The jury has returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of W. F. Becheler, auditor of the Pacific Express company, charged with embezzlement.

PROSPECTS ARE GOOD

For the Opening of Negotiations With England to Modify

CLAYTON-BULWER TREATY.

Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British Ambassador, Denies That He Has Received Any Instructions on the Subject.

Washington, Dec. 23.—It is accepted as little short of certain in the best informed official and diplomatic circles that negotiations will be opened at an early day toward so modifying the Clayton-Bulwer treaty as to meet the conditions of the present day concerning American construction and control of the Nicaraguan canal.

But while recent events on both sides of the water have made this move obvious, the British ambassador, Sir Julian Pauncefote has not up to the present time presented any instructions to open negotiations on this subject, nor is there any intimation that instructions are about to be received.

For this reason some surprise is expressed in diplomatic quarters at seeming authoritative announcements that Sir Julian has such instructions in hand, or is about to receive them and will execute them during holiday week by opening conferences with the state department.

In the absence of all instructions on the matter, the ambassador could not have made an authoritative statement, and had such instruction been received he is not in the habit of giving authoritative disclosures of his purposes.

At the same time it is thought to be quite likely that the near future will bring forth negotiations of this character.

The United States' charge d'affaires at London, Mr. Henry White, is at present the guest of Lord Salisbury at Hatfield House, and unofficial cable reports have indicated that the visit might have some connection with the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty.

In diplomatic quarters here this construction is not placed upon the visit, which is said to be quite in line with the usual social feature of the holidays.

If, however, it has official significance, there are phases likely to crop out aside from the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty. It will be recalled that the president's recent message, referring to American construction of the canal, was misinterpreted by the English press to mean that the United States intended to disregard the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, and go ahead with the canal without reference to England.

This view was promptly disavowed by officials here. Since then there has been about time for the official mail to reach London, and this doubtless permits a fuller clearing up of the erroneous impression that the English press and public, and possibly the officials, took of the president's references to the canal.

It is felt that this better understanding may naturally lead up to instructions from the foreign office to take up the whole subject, but, as stated, no such instructions have been received up to this time, and there is no intimation that they are about to be given.

To Abrogate Clayton-Bulwer Treaty.

London, Dec. 23.—There seems to be little doubt that Great Britain will agree to abrogate the Clayton-Bulwer treaty. The temper of the cabinet and public opinion, which largely influences the government's policy, points to such action, though no definite understanding with the United States has yet been reached. Great Britain desires that the Nicaraguan canal be constructed, and is willing that the United States should control it, if the United States guarantees its neutrality and safeguards British interests.

New York, Dec. 23.—A cable dispatch from Welsbaden, Germany, announces the death of Sebastian Bach Mills, a well known pianist and composer, aged 60 years. His father was a musician and he showed that he had inherited his talent at a very early age, for he appeared as an infant prodigy and went before Queen Victoria, by special command, when only 7 years old.

Admiral Sampson's Return.

New York, Dec. 23.—The United States cruiser New York, from Havana, has arrived here. Admiral Sampson is on board with Mrs. Sampson. Admiral Sampson said he had come home to attend his daughter's wedding on Jan. 4, at Glen Ridge, N. J.

Death of Edward Lawrence.

Chicago, Dec. 23.—Edward F. Lawrence, one of the most prominent capitalists of Chicago and associated with many large financial interests of the city, died after a short illness. He was born in Massachusetts in 1835.

A MUSICAL TREAT.

Maysville People Will Enjoy One Soon—Y. M. C. A. Affairs—The Reading Class. Men's Rally.

The Boston Ladies' Symphony Orchestra will appear in Maysville on the evening of January 23rd, 1899, in the interest of the Y. M. C. A. The orchestra is acknowledged to give one of the most superior musical entertainments now before the American public. The orchestra is composed of twenty ladies, each an artist of marked ability, the combination of which forms a picture of artistic harmony and matchless symmetry. This will be an opportunity not often granted a city no larger than Maysville, and all lovers of music should take advantage of this rare privilege.

The reading class, which was started at the Y. M. C. A. last week, had its second meeting, a most interesting session, Wednesday evening. It is the purpose of this class to read and study the best literature. Much interest was manifested in reading sketches from "Ivanhoe." Next meeting will be a continuation of the same subject. The class will not meet Christmas week, but will come together again January 4th. A cordial invitation is extended to all young men to meet with the class at that time.

Monday, January 2, '99, the association will keep open house. Every effort will be made to make the rooms attractive and pleasing to young men. From 3 to 10 o'clock p. m. the Ladies Committee will assist the Social Committee of the association in receiving and entertaining. Program has not been fully arranged, but will consist of music and games. In the evening there will be a gymnasium exhibition and basket ball game. Refreshments will be served.

Rev. Porter, of the Baptist Church, will be the speaker at the men's rally Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All men are invited to be present and help make this, the last meeting of the year, the best.

Besides the above attractions the management is planning for a number of other profitable and interesting features of association work. The association purposes to conduct a vigorous all-round manly work for the young men of Maysville, not merely during the winter months, but twelve months in the year.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

REV. GEORGE EDWARD RAPP.

Interesting Sketch of the Eloquent and Zealous Young Pastor of the Mitchell Chapel and Dover Southern M. E. Church.

[Dover News.]

Rev. George Edward Rapp, pastor of the Dover M. E. Church, South, and who is taking such a lively interest in the building of a new church house, was born in Cincinnati, O. His parents are German. He heard his first English word when about five years old. While he was yet a youth his parents moved to Kenton, Kenton County, Kentucky, on account of the rapidly failing health of his father, who left the crowded streets of the city, to try and regain his health on the farm. The advantages of the public school was very few, so George spent nearly all his time on the farm, and became an active farmer, besides dealing in horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, &c.

At the age of ten, one night as he was sitting under the sound of the gospel in his home church, the call to the ministry came to him in unmistakable tones.

He was converted at the age of sixteen, under the preaching of a beautiful young lady, Miss Belle Hunt.

The call to the ministry came with renewed force at his conversion, and under the enthusiasm of the new life, he earnestly desired to enter the ministry at once. But his parents and older brother and sisters objected serious. So rather than disobey them, he settled down to farm life again.

He always had a burning desire for an education, and at the age of twenty, left home for school, determined to make a lawyer out of himself. He entered the Kentucky Wesleyan College, then located at Millersburg, Ky. The next year the college was moved to Winchester, Ky., to which place he followed the college. During his stay in college he was elected President of the college Y. M. C. A. and was sent to Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, to represent his college at the Intercollegiate Y. M. C. A. convention which met there that year.

He received his A. B. degree from the K. W. C. in the spring of '94. While in college the last year he decided to enter the ministry. His work in college gained him a $100 scholarship in the Theological Department of Vanderbilt University, which he entered in the fall of 1894. That year he gained another $100 scholarship to be paid the second year. At the end of his second year he was elected by the faculty of the university to the responsible position of manager of Wesley Hall. This position he filled the third year, which paid him $25 per month, and he took in addition the regular senior work of the university. In June, 1897, he received his A. M. degree and also his B. D. degree from this great university. Several months before graduation he was elected by the University Board to run the Vanderbilt University hotel during the summer months.

He was offered several good positions by different business men, but declined on account of poor health and the advice of his classmates. Bishop Hargrove had several interviews with him and tried to get him to go West and join one of the Western conferences, offering him a good church. But he preferred to come back to join the Kentucky Conference where he could be near his parents and visit them in their latter days of life. He has been called by the Mission Board to go as a missionary to China, but refused, both on account of bad health and on account of the ties of love that bind him to his parents.

He joined the Kentucky Conference at Mt. Sterling, and was sent to Dover as his first work. He was popular from the start, and by his earnest effort and natural ability has wonderfully improved the spiritual standing of the church. He commands the highest respect of not only his own congregation but of all Christian people. The demand for his return was so pressing that he was returned to the Dover charge by the last conference, and at once began the work of building a new church house.

His efforts toward securing subscriptions have met with good success, and over a thousand dollars have been donated, and the good work goes on.

BISHOP NINDE, who presided over the Kentucky Conference in this city last fall, and Rev. J. W. Hamilton, of Cincinnati, have arranged to go to Cuba for the purpose of investigating the advisability of establishing Methodist schools and colleges in the island.

WINCHESTER Democrat: "The Sunday schools of the various churches will have no Christmas trees this year, but instead the pupils and teachers will enjoy the greater pleasure of giving. Contributions given to the various Orphan Homes and other worthy objects."

THE old reliable Mason County Building and Saving Association will open its twenty-sixth series January 2nd. Those wishing to subscribe for stock apply to M. C. Russell, Secretary, R. K. Hoeslich, Treasurer, or any of the directors. Plenty of money on hand to supply all who may want to borrow.

In July, 1895, Joseph Hanselman, who resided near Georgetown O., was killed by a horse. He was carrying a policy in the Union Central Company for $2,000. For the annual premium he had given his note, which was overdue thirty days at the time of his death. On the day of his death, and after it had occurred, the company undertook, under a provision of its policy, to cancel it on account of default in payment of premium. His wife secured the services of a lawyer and suit was entered. It was fought through all the courts. In each division of the courts the insurance company lost, and now loses finally under a decision of the Supreme Court of the State. The judgment, with interest accumulations, amounts to $2,330.

At Paris John Hennessy, of the G. G. White distilling Company, and Hon. J. L. Booley, Postmaster of Paris and editor of the Paris Reporter, had a clash in which several blows were struck, but no serious damage was sustained. The story is that W. A. Gaines, a negro revenue storekeeper, went into the office of the distillery, where Hennessy is employed, and washed his hands. The bookkeeper threw the bowl and towel out of the window, saying that no negro should take such privileges while he was employed there. Booley wrote the matter up and either said or intimated that the bookkeeper would be forced to resign on account of it. The bookkeeper insisted on a correction or retraction and failing to get it went in for personal satisfaction.

A NATIVE OF MASON.

Death of Rev. Andrew W. Wood at Concord, Lewis County.

Rev. Andrew W. Wood, a native of this county, died at his home in Concord Thursday, December 16th, aged seventy-three years and five months.

Mr. Wood was born July 11, 1825. His early life was spent in Mason County, and later he was for many years a resident of Aberdeen, moving from Aberdeen to Concord in 1833.

A wife and two children are left to mourn his demise—Sam A. Wood, the well-known artist of Cincinnati, but formerly of this city, and Mrs. Sue Applegate, of Poplar Flat, Ky. Deceased had lost four children in the past six years by death—Mrs. Anna Lee Clark, wife of Mr. W. H. Clark, of the Aberdeen Gretna Green, John Wood, Mrs. Bertha Secret and Mrs. Nannie Thompson, of Concord.

Toys! Toys! Toys!

I have a large assortment of new and fancy toys and would be pleased to have the public call and examine same and get my prices, as every article must go regardless of cost, and I will not be undersold by anyone. Mrs. JOHN WHEELER, Wheeler's old stand, Market street.

FIRE IN SIXTH WARD.

The Residence of Mrs. James Yazell on Second Street Slightly Damaged Last Evening at 6:30 O'Clock.

The alarm at 6:30 o'clock last evening was caused by a fire in a frame cottage on the north side of Second street and east of Wood, Sixth ward. The building is the property of Mrs. James Yazell, but Mr. John Dawson had recently moved into it. No one was at home at the time, and it is supposed the fire started from a lamp which had been left burning in the kitchen.

Fortunately the fire was discovered by Mr. J. E. Parker and Mr. Asa Dawson before it had gained much headway. The Limestones responded promptly and had the fire out before the other companies reached the scene.

Most of Mr. Dawson's furniture and some furniture belonging to Mrs. Yazell was gotten out, but some of it was damaged.

Three hundred dollars will probably cover the damage by the fire and water. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

The Enquirer says: "Mr. John F. Pogue returned Thursday from Washington, whither he went on private business, and also to look into the probabilities of getting his petition, with thousands of names of distillers and wholesale whiskey dealers, before Congress, asking for a reduction of the tax. Mr. Pogue said that in the hurry and uncertainty of the few days before the holiday adjournment it was impossible to arrive at any definite idea as to what might be done. Mr. Pogue is persistent, however, and, with the backing of practically every man in the trade in all the large cities of the country, he will not lack for sympathy and moral aid."

CHURCH OF THE NATIVITY.—Christmas services to-morrow: Morning prayer, sermon and holy communion at 10:30. The children of the Sunday school will attend this service. Evening prayer will be omitted. The Sunday school will hold its festival on Wednesday, Holy Innocent's Day, at 3 p. m.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1. Trial bottles free at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

FORTY are injured to one house burning. Pickett & Alexander write from one day to five years insurance.

ELEVEN young men have been accidentally shot this fall in Brown County, O., while hunting. Two of them were killed.

ONLY thirty-four hogsheds of tobacco were offered on the Cincinnati break Thursday—the lightest offerings on that day for years.

BEFORE purchasing, examine J. Jas. Wood & Son's stock of brush and comb sets, mirrors, perfumery, latest odors, puff boxes, etc.

The pastor will preach at both hours at the Baptist Church to-morrow. Morning subject, "The Bible." Evening subject, "The Evil of Strong Drink."

Just received at the Bee Hive fifty dozen ladies' felt walking hats which will be sold for one-quarter of their actual value. Prices range from 19c. to $1.

The People's Building Association will open its ninth series January 2. Those wishing to subscribe for stock, apply to J. D. Dye, John Duley or any of the directors.

The wedding of the Rev. Wm. Crowe, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of Frankfort, to Miss Grace Pilkington, youngest daughter of Mr. Alban Pilkington, of that city, took place at the pastor's church at noon Thursday.

YOUR attention just a moment. If you are contemplating the purchase of a watch, diamond or any piece of jewelry, inspect Clooney's stock, see his prices and save from 5 to 15 per cent. Next door to First National Bank.

CHRISTMAS at M. E. Church, South. At 9:15 a. m., children's exercises, when they will receive their presents from their teachers. Regular Christmas services at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Miss Lawwill will sing several pieces at the evening service.

CUT HIS THROAT.

Sharpsburg Shocked by the Suicide of Coleman Moffett, an Aged Farmer.

SHARPSBURG, December 23, 1898.—Coleman Moffett, an aged and esteemed farmer, eighty years old, cut his throat from ear to ear, the head being almost severed from the body, a razor being the deadly weapon.

The suicide was one of the most terrible ever known in the locality.

Moffett's home burned last night, and it is supposed this loss at his advanced age had driven the unfortunate old gentleman insane, and that while mentally unbalanced he took his life.

SPECIAL services will be held at the Central Presbyterian Church on to-morrow. The church will be decorated and the sermon and music will be appropriate to the day. All are invited.

MRS. KATIE DAILY, a domestic in the employ of C. B. Smith, of Poplar Plains, is charged with infanticide. An infant was found in a valise in her room, and it is claimed it was smothered, while she claims it was still born. She is a young widow, and had lived at Sherburne.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate the stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50c. at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store.
